Amber Players

The Amber Players are four international soloists/chamber musicians with a passion for playing chamber music together.

During our years spent playing together, the group has given many performances including those at Lauderdale House, All Saints Blackheath, St John's Hyde Park, The Lansdowne Club Mayfair, The Wallace Collection London and Corpus Christi Cambridge.

The members of the quartet have played independently of one another in recitals throughout the U.K. and Europe including France, Hungary, Poland, Germany and the Czech Republic before bringing their variety of experience together in this latest project.

As well as the standard Classical repertoire, the group has an active interest in Jazz, Klezmer, Irish, Bluegrass and Contemporary music.

In addition we offer a personal music arranging service* from our experienced arranger if you cannot see your favourite piece of music on our website. The Amber Players can play to welcome your guests to your event, at your wedding, civil partnership ceremony or blessing, and also at your party, reception or dinner.

 This service incurs an additional charge.*

Concerts

The Amber Players are available to give professional public/private concerts of the highest quality. All the quartet members are experienced performers who rehearse regularly together.

A list of our current repertoire is available on request, or alternative concert programmes can be arranged to suit your concert series theme or personal requirements.

Educational Work

Each member of the Amber Players is also a successful teacher with extensive experience of individual and group teaching as well as coaching orchestras and giving masterclasses in performance & chamber music. The Amber Players are available to work with your orchestra (children or adults), school or musical society/group.

If you have a string quartet that could benefit from professional coaching, GCSE or A level classes who would enjoy a workshop on writing for or playing in a string quartet, then contact us to discuss a package to suit your needs.

A concert and workshop can be arranged to encourage your students to take up an instrument or to improve their understanding and enjoyment of music making.

Also we can stage a lecture recital breaking down and examining your music society's current programme of listening culminating in a performance of the work by the Amber Players.

We can tailor a package to suit your individual needs/curriculum requirements or music society programme so please don't hesitate to contact us to discuss your requirements.
